

Job Title: Senior Lecturer (MER1) in Socioeconomics of sport and leisure

Requisition ID 20723 - Posted - (Education) - (Sciences of sport) - (Full time) - (Faculty of Social and Political Sciences) - (Teacher)

Introduction

UNIL is a leading international teaching and research institution, with over 5,000 employees and 17,000 students split between its Dorigny campus, CHUV and Epalinges. As an employer, UNIL encourages excellence, individual recognition and responsibility.

Presentation

In order to complete our team, the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences opens the position of Senior Lecturer (MER1) in Socioeconomics of sport and leisure

Information

Expected start date in position : 01.08.2024 / to be agreed

Contract length : 6 years, renewable

Activity rate : 100%

Workplace : Lausanne Dorigny

Your responsibilities

- Teaching (45%)
Six hours a week of teaching throughout the year, in French and English, at Bachelor and Master level. Additionally, supervision of Master dissertations.
- Research (45%)
The person recruited will pursue their own research in connection with socioeconomic and management issues in sport and leisure, particularly in Switzerland. An interest in sustainability and/or digitalisation in sports management would be an advantage.
High-quality academic publications are expected.
The person recruited will participate in the Institute of Sports Sciences (ISSUL).
They will seek external funding, in particular from the Swiss National Science Foundation (SNSF).
- Administrative duties (10%)
In accordance with statutory requirements and in the name of collegiality, the person recruited will take on any administrative tasks that may be assigned to them by the Institute, Faculty or university-level decision-making bodies.

Your qualifications

In order to complete our team, we are looking for someone with the following skills :

- PhD in sports sciences, management, social sciences, political science or equivalent;
- Previous academic teaching experience;
- Proven record of research in the socioeconomics of sport and leisure, including management issues faced by public and private actors in the sports and leisure sector, particularly in Switzerland;
- Ability to work closely with colleagues from other social science disciplines (e.g. history, sociology and psychology);
- Good links with international networks;
- Excellent knowledge of French; good writing and speaking abilities in English.

What the position offers you

We offer a nice working place in a multicultural, diverse and dynamic academic environment. Opportunities for professional training, a lot of activities and other benefits to discover.

Contact for further information

Mr. Professor Markus Lang
Markus.Lang@unil.ch

Your application

Deadline : 15.04.2023

Candidates are invited to submit their application via the online recruitment platform in PDF format, including:

- a cover letter
- an academic CV, including a list of publications,
- a copy of their diplomas and qualifications,
- five main publications in PDF format

Only applications submitted via the online system will be considered.

References: a maximum of three names with e-mail addresses is sufficient. There is no need to contact them at this stage of the application process; we will do so if necessary.

Job description

Click here to open the job description.

Additional information

UNIL is committed to promoting gender equality and diversity and strongly encourages applications from female candidates.

www.unil.ch/egalite

UNIL supports early career researchers.

www.unil.ch/graduatecampus

Recruitment process and conditions of Employment for a full or associate Professor.